

Vicki Martin

Vicki Martin joined GLA in 2019 to focus on our Partnering relationships in Southern California. As a resident of San Diego, she is well positioned to serve our customers and agencies in the markets of San Diego, Riverside, San Bernardino, Los Angeles and Kern Counties.

Since 2001, Vicki has been working with businesses and teams in the commercial construction industry. Her roles in sales and leadership skills training give Vicki a unique perspective and effectiveness. She brings effective communication, problem solving, and conflict resolution skills that bring teams together, making her an excellent Partnering Facilitator. Vicki specializes in Construction Partnering and Facilitated Dispute Resolution (FDR). She has earned certificates in Dispute Resolution from Cornell University in 2020 and Facilitation Skills from ATD in 2021.

Throughout her career, Vicki has been recognized as a change agent and role model garnering numerous awards. She has worked tirelessly for many years on committees and boards developing high performing teams in local chapters of the BIA, CMAA, ASPE, NAWIC and currently the AGCSD.

Vicki continues to serve the construction industry as a board member of the AGCSD/General Engineering Scholarship Foundation, facilitating scholarships with SDSU and advancement opportunities for young adults looking to enter the construction workforce. She also serves on the AGC San Diego Workforce Development Committee and Engineering General Contractors Committee. Vicki participates on the liaison committees with the AGC and the local agencies: Caltrans District 11, Port Authority, Airport Authority, SD County Water Authority and NAVFAC.

Vicki graduated from UCLA with a degree in Psychology and a Business emphasis. She is also the first woman to receive a college letter in a men's sport as a Coxswain on the PAC 10 Collegiate Rowing Team. She resides in San Diego with her husband, yacht broker Kenyon Martin. They enjoy time on the water and attending his sailing races.
